Charitable Assignment

Words printed in bold in this section are explained in paragraph 5 below. If you were a member of the Society on 28 February 1999 and have continued to be a member since that date, the following wording does not apply to you; in that case, please go to the Use of Personal Information section. All other applicants should read on: Where the account is a joint account, the below applies to all account holders.:

1. By applying to open an account I agree with the Society and the Charity that I will transfer to the Charity the right to any Windfall.
2. This will not apply to me if I fall within any class of persons which as at today's date the Society wishes to be excluded from this obligation.
3. To ensure that the agreement I have entered into in paragraph 1 can be effectively carried out:
 - a. I authorise the Society to transfer any Windfall direct to the Charity;
 - b. I agree to sign any documents and to do anything else which may be needed to transfer any Windfall and any right to receive the Windfall to the Charity;
 - c. I appoint the Society and any of its officers and (as a separate appointment) the Charity and any of its officers to be my agent to take any of the steps mentioned in (b) above on my behalf;
 - d. I authorise the Society to provide the Charity with any information it reasonably requires about me and any accounts I hold with the Society, and I consent to the Society and the Charity holding and processing such information for this purpose;
 - e. I cannot revoke the authority contained in (a), (b) or (d) above, or the appointment contained in (c) above.
4. I also agree that the Society will require (on behalf of itself and the Charity) that all applicants for share accounts who are not members of the Society will agree to the condition in paragraph 1 (or a condition having substantially the same effect) other than in respect of applicants falling within any class of persons where, at the time of the applicants becoming shareholding members, the Society considers this to be inappropriate. The Society will not impose the requirement in paragraph 1 on applicants if the Society decides and announces by press release that it is no longer in the best interests of the Society to do so generally on a continuing basis. Any such decision by the Society would not have retrospective effect and I would continue to be bound by the condition in paragraph 1.
5. In this section:
 - a. the "Charity" is Leeds Building Society Charitable Foundation or, if it ceases to exist, any other charity which becomes entitled to the benefit of the agreement I have entered into in paragraph 1;
 - b. "member" means a shareholding member or a borrowing member of the Society;
 - c. the "Society" means Leeds Building Society and if the Society merges with any other society, after the date of that merger, the "Society" includes that other society;
 - d. "Windfall" means any benefits which I might become entitled to receive:
 - i. as a shareholding member of the Society at any time within five years immediately following the date on which my account is opened (or within any shorter period as the Society today considers appropriate having regard for any particular category of person within which I may fall);
 - ii. under the terms of any future transfer of the Society's business to a company (i.e. on a conversion or takeover of the Society) except the statutory right to have shares in the Society (including any balances on share accounts) converted into deposits with the company.

Additional information (all or some of the below and overleaf)

1 Scheme responsible for the protection of your eligible deposit

Your eligible deposit is covered by a statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If insolvency of your bank, building society or credit union should occur, your eligible deposits would be repaid up to £85,000 by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme.

2 General limit of protection

If a covered deposit is unavailable because a bank, building society or credit union is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by a Deposit Guarantee Scheme. This repayment covers at maximum £85,000 per bank, building society or credit union. This means that all eligible deposits at the same bank, building society or credit union are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance, a depositor holds a savings account with £80,000 and a current account with £20,000, he or she will only be repaid £85,000.

In some cases eligible deposits which are categorised as "temporary high balances" are protected above £85,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such eligible deposits become legally transferable. These are eligible deposits connected with certain events including:

- certain transactions relating to the depositor's current or prospective only or main residence or dwelling;
- a death or the depositor's marriage or civil partnership, divorce, retirement, dismissal, redundancy or invalidity;
- the payment to the depositor of insurance benefits or compensation for criminal injuries or wrongful conviction.

More information can be obtained under fscs.org.uk.

3 Limit of protection for joint accounts

In the case of joint accounts, the limit of £85,000 applies to each depositor.

However, eligible deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of £85,000.

4 Reimbursement

The responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme is the Financial Services Compensation Scheme, 10th Floor Beaufort House, 15 St Botolph Street, London EC3A 7QU, Tel: 0800 678 1100 or 020 7741 4100, Email: ICT@fscs.org.uk. It will repay your eligible deposits (up to £85,000) within 20 working days until 31 December 2018; within 15 working days from 1 January 2019 until 31 December 2020; within 10 working days from 1 January 2021 to 31 December 2023; and within 7 working days from 1 January 2024 onwards, unless specific exceptions apply.

Where the FSCS cannot make the repayable amount available within 7 working days, it will, from 1 June 2016 until 31 December 2023, ensure that you have access to an appropriate amount of your covered deposits to cover the cost of living (in the case of a depositor which is an individual) or to cover necessary business expenses or operating costs (in the case of a depositor which is not an individual or a large company) within 5 working days of a request.

If you have not been repaid within these deadlines, you should contact the Deposit Guarantee Scheme since the time to claim reimbursement may be barred after a certain time limit. Further information can be obtained under fscs.org.uk.

Other important information

In general, all retail depositors and businesses are covered by Deposit Guarantee Schemes. Exceptions for certain deposits are stated on the website of the responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme. Your bank, building society or credit union will also inform you of any exclusions from protection which may apply. If deposits are eligible, the bank, building society or credit union shall also confirm this on the statement of account.

Exclusions List

A deposit is excluded from protection if:

- (1) The holder and any beneficial owner of the deposit have never been identified in accordance with money laundering requirements. For further information, contact your bank, building society or credit union.
- (2) The deposit arises out of transactions in connection with which there has been a criminal conviction for money laundering.
- (3) It is a deposit made by a depositor which is one of the following:
 - credit institution
 - financial institution
 - investment firm
 - insurance undertaking
 - reinsurance undertaking
